

Charlbury Cricket Club presents

“An Evening with Henry Olonga”

In aid of the New Pavilion Appeal

Saturday 12th April at 8 pm

St. Mary's Church, Charlbury

Well-known Zimbabwean former Test cricketer Henry Olonga, now an accomplished singer, will perform a selection of both pop and classical music. He will also talk about his life both on and off the cricket field and there will be a question-and-answer session. Drinks will be available.

This promises to be a highly entertaining evening so please come along, enjoy yourselves and support Charlbury Cricket Club.

Tickets £10, or £7 for under-18s and over-65s (to include a glass of wine for over-18s) available from News and Things, Charlbury Post Office, The Good Food Shop, Peter's Hairdressers, Cotswold Frames, Fiveways Londis and Evenlode Books, or from Malcolm Harper (The Cottages, Church Lane, Charlbury; Tel. 07778 450515). Tickets can also be purchased on the night (subject to availability).
